

STEPHEN HECHT

Co-Founder & CEP, Million Peacemakers

Stephen is a global peacemaking leader with more than three decades of experience advancing constructive conflict transformation and social impact. He is the co-founder and Chief Executive Peacemaker of Million Peacemakers and a founding force behind Generation Peace, a global collaboration with leading youth organizations to equip 250 million young people as peacemakers by 2035.

Stephen's work bridges human wisdom and innovation, including the development of Nonflict AI, an AI-powered tool that helps individuals navigate real-world conflicts with empathy, clarity, and accountability. His approach positions peace not as an abstract ideal, but as a learnable, scalable practice embedded in everyday life.

As a Global Ambassador for the Peace Innovation Initiative, Stephen is committed to amplifying bold ideas, connecting innovators across sectors, and helping build sustainable pathways where peace, technology, and youth leadership converge.
